

Teresa Johnston, MA, LPC

Director of the Center for CYAAR
Affiliated Staff, CPS

Teresa did her undergraduate work at Michigan State University and received her Master's in Professional Counseling from Richmond Graduate University (formerly Psychological Studies Institute) in Atlanta, Georgia. Ms. Johnston is a certified paralegal, has a strong business background and is a Licensed Professional Counselor in the State of Georgia. Ms. Johnston's professional interests include alcohol and other drug prevention, education, treatment and recovery. Her specialization is addiction. Ms. Johnston is an adjunct instructor with the Psychology Department and teaches KSU 1101.